

Request for Information Comfort Letters

Comfort Letters are often requested from the Development Department by a law firm or individual regarding a certain property within Delta. The timeframe to complete a comfort letter can take up to six (6) weeks to process depending on the complexity of the request. Please contact the Application Centre for any question you may have at 604-946-3380 or email cpd@delta.ca

The fee for a comfort letter is based per Property Identification Number (PID), as listed in the request letter:

- $75 plus 5% GST for residential ($78.75)
- $200 plus 5% GST for industrial / commercial / multi-family ($210.00)

Requests are to be in written format, with the cheque attached (payable to 'City of Delta'). The request must include:

- PID(s) and legal description of the property/properties in question
- A detailed outline of the information the requestor is seeking, such as:
 - Building and plumbing permits
 - Existing zoning and permitted uses
 - Official Community Plan designation
 - Compliance with environmental acts
 - Occupancy permits
 - Outstanding violations

The information contained in the comfort letter is based on a review of the Development Department's records only. Information from the Office of Climate Action and Environment's records will be supplied upon request. You may wish to contact the following agencies / department for further information:

- Technical Safety BC at 1-866-566-7233 or <http://www.technicalsaftybc.ca> for electrical and gas matters;
- British Columbia Ministry of Environment at 1-800-663-7867 for further information regarding spills, hazardous materials or contraventions of the Environmental Management Act;
- Metro Vancouver at 604-432-6200 for any records contained in their files on non-compliance with the applicable bylaws and regulations;
- Fraser Health at 1-877-935-5669 or 604-587-4600;
- City of Delta, Fire & Emergency Services Department at 604-946-8541 for information regarding fires or spills.

Upon completion of the letter, the response will be emailed to the requestor. Requests that have been processed are not eligible for a refund of the fee.

