A Pre-Application Meeting is intended to assist a potential applicant with a complex enquiry related to an imminent development application. Land use policy and zoning regulation questions can be addressed directly by front counter or planning staff without a formal meeting. In general, Pre-Application Meetings will be considered for:

- Single family development with five or more units;
- Strata title conversion;
- Multi-family development;
- Mixed-used developments; or
- Developments with complex site constraints, as determined by staff.

If a Pre-Application Meeting is granted, please see below process and expectations related to the meeting:

Meeting Attendance

The prospective applicant must attend the meeting. Note that if the prospective applicant is not the property owner, then owner authorization is required. At least one staff member from Planning Services would be at the meeting. Depending on the nature of the enquiry, additional municipal staff may also be invited.

Responsibilities at the Meeting

At the Pre-Application Meeting, planning staff will:

- Advise of relevant land use policies and regulations pertaining to the subject property.
- Advise of planning issues with respect to the proposal.
- Review the list of application requirements for your proposal and the application process.

Staff will advise the applicant on costs that are outlined in Delta's Bylaws only. It is the applicant's responsibility to engage an engineering firm to undertake an analysis of Delta's existing infrastructure and determine if it is adequate to service the proposed development. Staff are not able to provide estimates of probable costs to adequately service the proposal.

Staff are not able to advise on the probability of success of an application.

Meeting Results

Following the meeting, planning staff will provide a summary of the meeting notes to the prospective applicant.
