

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

For immediate release - June 12, 2013

Mayor Lois E. Jackson, Delta Council and the Heritage Advisory Commission are pleased to announce Antony Tsui of Delta Secondary School as the recipient of the 2013 Heritage Commission Scholarship. His submission, the website The Deltan Century – Delta Secondary School Celebrating 100 Years, tells the history of the school, including highlights from past events, and showcases the school’s centennial celebrations.

“I am so proud of our local graduating students who displayed such a great interest in Delta’s heritage through this scholarship,” said Mayor Lois E. Jackson. “We received quality submissions that show our heritage is in good hands in the future.”

The Heritage Commission also recognized the entry from Sarah Strukoff of Delta Secondary School with an honourable mention. Her essay “The Westham Island Bridge” describes the importance of the Westham Island Bridge to her family and Delta’s heritage.

The Delta Heritage Commission Scholarship is awarded annually to a graduating secondary school student in Delta to encourage students to display an interest in local or regional heritage through the development of an original piece of work. The winner of the 2013 Heritage Commission Scholarship receives $750 towards post-secondary studies.

Mayor Lois E. Jackson will present the first place award certificate to Antony Tsui at the July 15, 2013 Regular Meeting of Council at 7:00 pm in Council Chambers at Delta Municipal Hall.
