

Heritage Week: February 17 – 25, 2018

Saturday, February 17, 2018 Harris Barn from 10am – 6 pm

Time	Description	Presented by
10am-4pm	Community Booths Try a craft activity, watch a demonstration, and participate in our community art project.	Featuring interactive community booths.
10am-1pm	Mountain Men Strolling musicians play your Celtic, Bluegrass, Canadiana and folk music favourites.	Mountain Men
11am-2pm	Corycatures Get your own heritage caricature portrait!	Corycatures
11am-12pm	Canning Workshop Watch a live demonstration of small-batch food processing and learn how to make a great low-sugar blueberry-lemon jam with organic ingredients that will have family and friends coming back for more!	Peg Keeleyside
12-1:30pm	International Hot Dogs Hot dogs available for sale. Use the international ingredient bar to dress your hot dog with ingredients from around the world.	Prepared by TOOB
1-1:05pm	Dhol Drumming Warm Up Performance	South Asian Arts
1:15-2:00pm	Dhol Drumming Workshop Learn about Dhol drumming in this hands-on musical workshop. A Dhol is a traditional North Indian percussion instrument made from wood.	South Asian Arts
2:30-3:30pm	Henna Workshop Learn how to create your own beautiful henna designs.	Ramina Randhawa
4:00-5:00pm	Samosas and Snacks Enjoy a free snack before the evening's special presentation.
4-6pm	Duty, Honour & Izzat Exhibit	Steven Purewal
4:30-5:30pm	Special Presentation: Duty, Honour & Izzat During the First World War Indian soldiers fought for the Crown as soldiers of the King and played a pivotal part in the campaigns on the Western Front and so share a deep heritage with Canada. A special exhibit by the Indus Media Foundation will be available for viewing before or after the talk.	Steven Purewal, Indus Media Foundation