

Heritage Week: February 17 – 25, 2018

Saturday, February 24, 2018 Sunbury Hall from 10am – 6 pm

Time	Description	Presented by
10am-4pm	Community Booths Try a craft activity, watch a demonstration, and participate in our community art project.	Featuring interactive community booths.
11am-2pm	Cedar Weaving Workshop Make your own woven cedar bracelet and learn about Tsawwassen weaving traditions.	Loretta Williams, Tsawwassen First Nation
11am-2pm	Corycatures Get your own heritage caricature portrait!	Corycatures
12-1:30pm	International Hot Dogs Hot dogs available for sale. Use the international ingredient bar to dress your hot dog with ingredients from around the world.	Prepared by the North Delta Lion
1-1:05pm	Capoeira Warm-Up Performance Equal parts music, dance and acrobatics, Aché Brasil infuses the culture, traditions and music of Brazil in a spectacle of movement and color.	Aché Brasil
1:10-1:55pm	Capoeira Workshop Capoeira is a Brazilian art form, which combines dance, music, and acrobatics with martial arts. Known as the secret dance of Brazil, capoeira is an astonishing display of acrobatics, breath-taking kicks and self-defence tactics performed to the music of the Berimbau (an ancient stringed bow-like instrument) and drums. Come try it for yourself in this fun-filled, high-energy workshop.	Aché Brasil
2:30-3:30pm	Henna Workshop Learn how to create your own beautiful henna designs.	Ramina Randhawa
4:00-5:00pm	Samosas and Snacks Enjoy a free snack before the evening's special presentation.
4:30-5:30pm	Special Presentation: Duty, Honour &amp; Izzat During the First World War Indian soldiers fought for the Crown as soldiers of the King and played a pivotal part in the campaigns on the Western Front and so share a deep heritage with Canada.  A special exhibit by the Indus Media Foundation will be available for viewing before or after the talk.	Steven Purewal